

Baker eBlast

September 27, 2016

Dear Baker Community,

On Wednesday and Thursday of this week, September 28-29, Carly Andrews, the third of three Head of School finalists will visit the school. The schedule for her visit can be found here. Please note that our entire community - parents (current, past and prospective), faculty and staff, alumni, etc. - is invited to meet Carly, and her husband Martin, on either Wednesday from 5:45-6:45PM in the Baker Library or Thursday from 8:30-9:30AM in Carlson Auditorium.

Baker's Search Committee is also inviting you to share your thoughts on Carly in the following link. This link will remain active until midnight on Friday, September 30.

As a reminder, Carly's detailed resume and educational philosophy can be found here. Carly Andrews is currently Assistant Head of School at Bosque School in Albuquerque, New Mexico, and she was previously Head of School at Willowwind School. She earned a BA from Cedarville College and an MA from Middlebury College.

As always, don't hesitate to contact me with questions or suggestions at headsearch@bakerdemschool.org. Please also visit bakerdemschool.org/headsearch for all previous updates about the search process.

We have three excellent Head of School finalist candidates, and we recognize that they are determining Baker's fit for them and their families, just as the Baker Search Committee is looking for the best fit for our school. We are very excited to show our finalists Baker's wonderful school and community. Thank you for your engagement and commitment to this process, and for helping to welcome Carly and her husband Martin to Baker!

Sincerely,

Stacey Empson
Chair, Head of School Search Committee

Don't forget, the link for the survey to give your feedback on the second finalist, Ted Hamory, will be live until midnight on Wednesday, September 28. We want to hear from you!
